| Price: | Monthly Pricing / $ Canadian Per Unit |
| Base Currency: | Canadian Dollars |
| Minimum Subscription: | $5,000 CAD (Initial for Fieldhouse Advisors) $250,000 (Initial for 3 rd Party Advisors) |
| Overview: | The Global Managed Futures Program Series C Units is an investment fund focused on establishing absolute long and or short positions in a portfolio of global commodities, government treasuries, stock indices and foreign exchange markets and money market securities at the discretion of the portfolio manager. The Fund establishes such positions with the exclusive use of exchange traded futures, options and or cash markets representing the desired given markets and sectors of participation. |
| Investment Objectives: | The investment objective of the Series C Units is to achieve above average risk adjusted returns through a portfolio of exchange traded futures, forwards, and options representative of commodity and financial markets at the discretion of the portfolio manager. The Series C Unit return profile is designed to exceed traditional equity or fixed income returns and add unique diversification to traditional well-balanced investment portfolios. |
| Investment Strategy: | The foundation of the Portfolio Manager's investment strategy provides for the deployment of long and or short positions in a portfolio of commodity and financial markets with exchange traded futures, options, forwards, and the respective cash markets thereof. The portfolio manager uses a combination of fundamental and technical factors assisted by a suite of custom proprietary algorithms designed to participate in both bull and bear market environments and trading ranges thereof. The proprietary algorithms are designed to benefit from perceived investor bias by way of pattern recognition relationships in an array of serial compressions. |
| Investment Restrictions: | The investment strategy and objectives within Series C Units clearly limit the fund to primary global commodity and financial product futures markets and the derivatives thereof. As such the fund will not be investing in traditional equities or fixed income markets except for short-term treasuries and money market securities to supplement interest income earned on cash holdings. In addition, Series C is subject to the standard restrictions as set forth under "Investment Restrictions" in the Base OM. Additionally, the Series C Portfolio Manager may from time to time establish specific investment restrictions for the Series. Such restrictions, if so established, may be amended from time to time by the Series C Portfolio Manager without the consent of, or any notice to, Unitholders of the Series C Units. |
| Portfolio Manager: | Fieldhouse Capital Management Inc. / Manager: Douglas Sereda / Analyst: Thomas Kemp |
| Foreign Currency & Hedging: | The securities held in the portfolio may be denominated in US dollars. |
| Leverage: | The fund may use leverage for investment purposes. |
| Short Selling | The fund may short sell securities |
| Redemption of Units: | Units may be surrendered for redemption on demand or by scheduled monthly liquidity events. |
| Eligibility for Investment: | Eligible for RRSP, RRIF, DPSP, TFSA, and RESP. |
| Trailer: | None |
| Management Fee: | Series C Units incur a management fee payable to FCMI equal to 1.0% of NAV on an annualized basis and is payable monthly based on NAV. |
| Incentive Fee: | An incentive fee will apply equal to 10% of the Total Performance Valuation in each calendar year, to the extent that the NAV exceeds the initial Unitholder's subscription price, and thereafter the Net Asset Value per Unit immediately following the payment of an Incentive Fee in respect of such Unit (the "HWM"). |
| Administration Expense: | Series C Units are also subject to the Administration Fee and all other operating expenses of the Fund. |

Class Specific Risk Factors:

An investment in Series C Units involves risks. Subscribers should consider the risk factors in evaluating the merits and suitability of an investment. A discussion of risks of which all Series are subject can be found in the Base OM and the OM Series C Unit Supplement.

Financial Reporting:

SGGG Fund Services Inc. ("SGGG") is the administrator for the Fieldhouse Pro Funds Trust, Series C Global Managed Futures. SGGG determines valuations for the fund monthly or on demand.
